

NOMINEES FOR NON-STAFF PASTOR

Paul Bixby

Paul and his wife, Theresa, became members of HPBC while on the mission field in Spain. Paul has been greatly involved in our Spanish ministry. He has also sung in the choir, participated in men's Bible studies, served in Men for Missions, and served as a non-staff pastor. He currently works with The Blood Connection where he helps maintain blood supplies for 28 hospitals. Paul desires to be invested in ministry that has eternal value, and he is looking forward to deeper involvement in the lives of brothers and sisters in the body of Christ at Hampton Park.

Ken Jensen

Ken has been a part of HPBC for almost 48 years. Ken's involvement at HP has included serving as a deacon, teaching an adult Sunday school class, helping with the security team and serving as a non-staff pastor. He is the director of EMU International (Evangelical Mission to the Unreached) which is based in Taylors. He is married to Joan, and they have three grown children.

Rene Rodriguez

Rene Rodriguez wants to be joyfully obedient to the Lord by using the gifts he's been given for God's glory and for the edification of God's people. He's been involved in Kids 4 Truth, the Spanish ministry, as a LifeGroup co-leader, and as a deacon. Rene is also a faculty member at Hampton Park Christian School where he teaches math in the Upper School. He's been at HPBC for nine years. Rene and his wife, Yani, have two children: Amaris (7) and Jason (3).

Steve Sturm

Steve Sturm has been at Hampton Park for thirty-six years and he desires to be as spiritually productive as he can be while he is still here on this earth. He has taught Sunday school and has served as a deacon. He's also a member of the choir. Steve is married to Sherry and they have four adult children: Kelly, John, Steven, and Karla.

NOMINEES FOR DEACON

John Bakos and his wife, Angie, have been at HPBC for 10 years. He has served in many ways and is currently serving in the Host ministry and as a Safety Team leader. Serving as a deacon will allow him to serve in a more specific and purposeful way. John and Angie have five sons, three are adults and two are teenagers.

Scott Koenke has been at Hampton Park for 48 years. He would like to be a deacon to serve the Lord and this ministry. He has served in children's church, nursery, and Men for Missions and is currently serving with the security team. Scott is married to Cheryl and they have three adult children.

Jim Branigan is married to Jackie and they have two grown daughters. He'd like to serve as a deacon to be of service to the Lord's work here at Hampton Park. Jim has been at HPBC for more than 6 years and has served at Harvest Happening, worked cleanup during construction, delivered gifts to shut ins and is an active member of the Power Company Leadership Team.

Jack Martin and his wife, Michele, have three grown children. They've been at Hampton Park for 13 years. Jack has served in many areas in our body, including the nursery, children's church, the host ministry, as a LifeGroup leader, and as a deacon. He desires to serve again as a deacon because it offers him the opportunity to expand his ministry at HPBC.

Kevin Camfield has been at Hampton Park for 37 years. He and his wife, Lisa, have three adult children and two teenagers. Kevin desires to be a deacon to serve the body of Christ. He is currently helping with the Family Life Sunday School class.

Jon Peery has been a member of HPBC for 34 years. He has served as a Sunday school teacher, as a safety team member, as the chairman of many deacon positions, has lead mission teams and is ready to help in any way needed. It has been his great joy to care for his church family in whatever capacity is deemed best. Jon and his wife, Debbie, have seven adult children.

Mike Corbett and his wife, Rhonda, have been at Hampton Park for a little more than three years. They have two grown children. Mike has been praying for a more active role in serving others and has been involved in many areas, including Harvest Happening, the host ministry, church work days, and other opportunities as they have arisen.

Tom Santopietro and his wife, Sandy, came to Hampton Park three years ago. Tom takes serving in any ministry very seriously and plans to maintain the qualifications of a deacon, to love and serve the congregation, and to do it all to the glory of God. He currently serves in the host ministry, in children's church, and as an usher. Tom and Sandy have two grown sons.

Al Goodwin wants to serve the ministry of Hampton Park for the furtherance of the gospel message and growth of the body of Christ. He looks forward to the fellowship with other deacons and growth in his own life. Al and his wife, Tracy, have six adult children and one granddaughter.

Ben Solensky wants to follow in Jesus' example to love others through prayer and service. He's excited to serve the needs of the church in a practical and accountable way. Ben has served in our children's ministry as well as in the orchestra and in his LifeGroup. He's married to Larissa and they have one infant daughter, Elinora.

Wayne Hallberg believes that serving as a deacon is a way that God would have him serve in this ministry now that he has retired from teaching at HPCS. He has served on the security team, in the choir, with Men for Missions, and as a substitute Sunday school teacher. Wayne and his wife, Margie, have four grown children. Their son, David, lives at home with them.

David Wise has been a member at HPBC since 1979. He has served as a Sunday school teacher, Sunday School Assistant Superintendent, and as a deacon (chair, school committee). David wants to serve the needs of members to free up our pastors to proclaim the Word. David is married to Crystal and they have four adult children.

Jacob Hrinko has been at Hampton Park for the past decade. He currently serves in the nursery and Kids 4 Truth. He's also an assistant LifeGroup leader. Jacob would like to help and serve others in our church so that we can all grow and serve Christ better. He is married to Rachel and they have two young boys, Orion and Xander.

Terry Worley and his wife, Cheryl, have been at HPBC for nearly eight years. They have two adult children. Terry teaches Sunday school, is on the safety team, and is a LifeGroup co-leader. He has helped with several events in the past as well. Terry believes that the gifts he has so graciously been given can both be used in the body and grown in the role of a deacon.
